Phoenix Digital takeover strengthens the Industrial segment

Softing has announced the acquisition of the assets of Phoenix Digital, a US-based provider of secure industrial fiber optic communication products. These fiber optic communication modules are installed in demanding environments such as oil and gas, water and wastewater, mining, bridges and tunnels, and power generation. These secure fiber optic modules complement Softing's IoT communications product portfolio in the Industrial segment, expanding the technologies offered and the industries served.

Phoenix Digital products are deployed in various automation platforms such as ABB, Cisco, Emerson, Rockwell or Siemens. From next year onwards, the recently acquired asset should contribute sales of up to EUR 3m p.a. We estimate that profitability on a standalone basis is relatively low, but should be attractive under Softing's umbrella. There should be synergy benefits as the business will be operated by Online

While we assume that the acquisition should be value-accretive, the overall impact seems to be rather small. PT of EUR 9.50 and the Buy rating are confirmed.

Company Background

- Softing has the necessary expertise on information exchange between various devices, sensors, plant and software solutions in automated processes. Its business activity comprises three segments.
- Industrial Automation: hardware and software solutions for the exchange of information in all kinds of production including assembly lines, chemical plants, oil and gas extraction or refineries.
- IT Networks: diagnostic devices which are used in industrial automation and for the diagnosis of copper and optical fibre networks in data centers and office installations
- Automotive Electronics: The solutions allow engineers and workshop mechanics to test automotive electronics in the development phase, production or repair and to recognise errors via data evaluation.
- The solutions in the automotive segment are not for application within the vehicles and therefore do not pose a product re-call risk for the company.

Competitive Quality

- European market leader in the networking of various production plant elements as well as in business-related software (so-called OPC products).
- World market leader in components for the exchange of information in gas and oil plants. Some >50% of all devices registered worldwide that are used in these plants include components from Softing.
- Softing's participation in international committees that set standards for the exchange of information. This contributes to a short time-to-market.
- The high complexity of Softing's business activity is the single most important barrier to market entry for potential competitors.

[•] The cyclical components of the business activity and the low liquidity of the share raise capital costs.

Free Cash Flow Value Potential

Warburg Research's valuation tool "FCF Value Potential" reflects the ability of the company to generate sustainable free cash flows. It is based on the "FCF potential" - a FCF "ex growth" figure - which assumes unchanged working capital and pure maintenance capex. A value indication is derived via the perpetuity of a given year's "FCF potential" with consideration of the weighted costs of capital. The fluctuating value indications over time add a timing element to the DCF model (our preferred valuation tool).

DISCLOSURE ACCORDING TO §85 OF THE GERMAN SECURITIES TRADING ACT (WPHG), MAR AND MIFID II INCL. COMMISSION DELEGATED REGULATION (EU) 2016/958 AND (EU) 2017/565

The valuation underlying the investment recommendation for the company analysed here is based on generally accepted and widely used methods of fundamental analysis, such as e.g. DCF Model, Free Cash Flow Potential, Peer Group Comparison or Sum of the Parts Model (see also http://www.mmwarburg.de/disclaimer/disclaimer.htm#Valuation). The result of this fundamental valuation is modified to take into consideration the analyst's assessment as regards the expected development of investor sentiment and its impact on the share price.

Independent of the applied valuation methods, there is the risk that the price target will not be met, for instance because of unforeseen changes in demand for the company's products, changes in management, technology, economic development, interest rate development, operating and/or material costs, competitive pressure, supervisory law, exchange rate, tax rate etc. For investments in foreign markets and instruments there are further risks, generally based on exchange rate changes or changes in political and social conditions.

This commentary reflects the opinion of the relevant author at the point in time of its compilation. A change in the fundamental factors underlying the valuation can mean that the valuation is subsequently no longer accurate. Whether, or in what time frame, an update of this commentary follows is not determined in advance.

Additional internal and organisational arrangements to prevent or to deal with conflicts of interest have been implemented. Among these are the spatial separation of Warburg Research GmbH from M.M.Warburg & CO (AG & Co.) KGaA and the creation of areas of confidentiality. The analysts of Warburg Research GmbH do not receive a gratuity – directly or indirectly – from the investment banking activities of M.M.Warburg & CO (AG & Co.) KGaA or of any company within the Warburg-Group.

All prices of financial instruments given in this investment recommendation are the closing prices on the last stock-market trading day before the publication date stated, unless another point in time is explicitly stated.

M.M.Warburg & CO (AG & Co.) KGaA and Warburg Research GmbH are subject to the supervision of the Federal Financial Supervisory Authority, BaFin. M.M.Warburg & CO (AG & Co.) KGaA is additionally subject to the supervision of the European Central Bank (ECB).
